Dear Frank

The enclosed copy is for you. Please tell me all its faults
of omission & commission.
There must be several,
as I have just rushed
it off, & the rule for self criticism is to keep a poem six
weeks & there inspect it.
Give my love to

wee Elsie & tall Ellen, & accept my apologies
for not sending you
this sooner.

Sincerely
Ethelwyn

P. S. Dr. Dowd has just come in & says Aunt Jean is better. He has taken off her splints & she laughs & jokes
with him. Isn't that grand!
