

Title:	Photo album, St. Catharines area, ca. 1913-1919
Creator:
Dates of Material:	1913-1919	Record Group Number:	RG 388
Summary of Contents:	One hardcover photo album containing black and white photos. Many of the photos were taken in the St. Catharines area. Included are photos of Port Dalhousie, Port Weller, Niagara Falls, Niagara-on-the-Lake and St. Catharines. There are also photos of Braeside, Ont. and the Ottawa valley. Various local landmarks are included, such as the armoury in St. Catharines, Montebello Park, and Martindale pond. Some of the events captured include a train wreck that occurred in St. Catharines in 1914, the visit of the Governor General to St. Catharines in 1914 (featuring the Carnegie library and Post Office and federal building decorated with flags), and an airplane that crashed into a body of water, possibly a plane from an air training camp in Beamsville during World War I. There are also two photos of champion Niagara district basketball teams, possibly taken in the gymnasium building located behind the former St. Catharines Collegiate building (later Robertson School) on Church Street. One photo includes Norman Byrne, Gladys Ansell, Miriam Marshall, Irene Stoter (?), Mildred Houston, A. Gardner, and Madeline Jenner. The other photo includes George Moase, W. Bennett, Norman Byrne, Jack Bain, Mr. Brackenbury, Cyril Merriman, Jim Galway, Harry Erskine, and Roy Carpenter. Some of the other photos include Helen Marshall, Ralfe Clench, and Mildred Houston.
Physical Description / Condition:	1 hardcover photo album, 26 x 28.5 cm. Approx. 270 black and white photographs.
Other Notes:
Location:	Brock University Archives

Source Information:
Described by:	Chantal Cameron	Date:	January 24, 2012