

Wednesday A.M.

Dear Arthur,

I was very glad to receive that nice letter; and you shall get a real answer in a few days. This is only to tell you about November sixth. I surely would rather have some one go from here, but of course if Rube has already asked a "Jerseyite" I'll try to become easily acquainted. Do not be afraid of my not having a good time, for your presence assures that. Now I can surely get Maude Dowden or Doris Megger.

They are both adorable girls, but knowing the former so much better I would rather have her join us. The only thing that is uncertain about Maude is that she is about to take a position and might not be able to get a day off as soon. She has changed her ideas about a person's being in mourning and doesn't think there is any harm in one's attending a ball game, even though they are in black, so that wouldn't be an obstacle in her way. Doris of course we can easily get, as she is like myself.
